Sports

My favourite sport has always been football, but I also enjoy volleyball, skiing, tennis, chess, and other sports.

Writing

My time in philosophy has cultivated my interest for literature and its many facets. I enjoy producing texts, reading, and in this digital age I keep a hand-written diary to maintain my handwriting.

Music

I decided to learn to play the guitar when I was 13, and now I have been playing it for more than half of my life. Music offers me a creative outlet, and teaches me to overcome my nerves.
